iv. Determining the Outcome of a Match

- a. A goal is scored when the whole of the ball passes over the goal line, between the goalposts, and under the crossbar, provided that no infringement of the LOTG has been committed previously by the team scoring the goal.

v. Restarts

- a. Kickoffs:
  1. Will be awarded to the home team in the first half. In the second half, the team changes sides, and the opposite team will take the next kick-off.

2. A goal may not be scored directly from kick-off. The player taking the kick-off cannot touch the ball again until it has touched another player. (If a player touches it twice during kick-off, the kick-off is retaken.)
- b. Throw-Ins:
1. A throw-in is awarded to the opponents of the player who last touched the ball when the whole of the ball crosses the touchline, either on the ground or in the air.
  2. A goal cannot be scored directly from a throw-in.
  3. Players only get one (1) chance on throw-ins for the U12 division.
- c. Goal Kick:
1. A goal kick is awarded when the whole of the ball passes over the goal line, either on the ground or in the air, having last touched a player of the attacking team.
  2. A goal may be scored directly from a goal kick, but only against the opposing team.
- d. Corner Kicks:
1. A corner kick is awarded when the whole of the ball passes over the goal line, either on the ground or in the air, having last touched a player of the defending team.
  2. A goal may be scored directly from a corner kick, but only against the opposing team.
  3. Opposing player must be at least 5 yards from the ball.
- e. Offside:
1. It is not an offense in itself to be in an offside position. A player is in an offside position if: he/she is nearer to his opponent's goal line than both the ball and the second-last opponent.
  2. A player is not in an offside position if:
    - He/she is in his/her half of the field of play;
    - He/she is level with the second-last opponent; or
    - He/she is level with the last two opponents.
- f. Free Kicks:
1. All free kicks are either direct or indirect.
    - Direct Free Kick:
      - i. If a direct free kick is kicked directly into the opponent's goal, a goal is awarded.
      - ii. If a direct free kick is kicked directly into the team's own goal, a corner kick is awarded to the opposing team.
    - Indirect free kick: the referee indicates an indirect free kick by raising his arm above his head. He maintains his arm in that position until the kick has been taken and the ball has touched another player or goes out of play.

- A goal can be scored only if the ball subsequently touches another player before it enters the goal:
  - i. If an indirect free kick is kicked directly into the opponent's goal, a goal kick is awarded.
  - ii. Procedure of the free kicks is to be complied with according to the LOTG.

g. Penalty Kicks:

1. A penalty kick is awarded against a team that commits one of the ten offenses for which a direct free kick is awarded, inside its penalty area and while the ball is in play.
2. A goal may be scored directly from a penalty kick.
3. Procedure of the penalty kick is to be complied with according to the LOTG.

vi. Referees

- a. Each match is controlled by two (2) assigned referee, who has full authority to enforce the LOTG in connection with the match to which he/she has been appointed.
