Join the Guam FA Women's National Program

The Guam Football Association is seeking a dedicated Goalkeeper Coach to join our Women's National Program. This unique opportunity offers room for professional growth, with potential to advance into an Assistant or Head Coach role. The successful candidate will be responsible for delivering high-quality goalkeeper coaching while supporting the development goals of both the national teams and academy program.

In addition to coaching, the role includes actively contributing to coach education as a goalkeeper coach educator, helping to elevate coaching standards across the program. We are looking for an innovative leader who inspires at every level, brings out the best in players, and represents our federation and island with pride. Strong communication skills, a collaborative mindset, and a commitment to player and coach development are essential.

Interested applicants should email their expression of interest to joe.cepeda@theguamfa.com. The application form is available at <https://guamfa.com/contact-us/team-up-with-us/>. Please include:

- A cover letter explaining why your experience and character are a strong fit for this position
- Your coaching license(s) and certifications
- A resume/CV detailing your coaching background and credentials

This position reports directly to the Head of the Women's National Program.

You will be an integral part of achieving specific goals and objectives of the GFA Strategic Plan 2023-2026 "Growth Planning for the Next Generation".
